

We are seeking a Maintenance Mechanic to join our team in Whittier, CA!

Responsibilities include:

Assemble, build, adjust, dismantle and repairs plant machinery and equipment.

Completes work designated on maintenance work orders.

Correct defective mechanical devices and equipment by disassembling, installing new parts, welding and/or re-fitting new parts.

Study and interpret drawings, blueprints and schematics to install new equipment, modify existing equipment or troubleshoot mechanical problems with inoperative equipment.

Modify and improve existing equipment as instructed.

Install air, water and gas lines and repair and maintain plumbing.

Repair and maintain lift trucks and various pneumatic and hydraulic equipment.

Determine root cause of mechanical failures and repair or replace necessary parts.

Use welding equipment to make repairs.

Work with Engineering, Operations and Quality Control during emergency break downs to restore operation as quickly as possible.

Maintain housekeeping and perform all tasks safely in shop area and work sites.

Order replacement parts as needed.

Interacts with hourly and salaried personnel, outside vendors and contractors. All other duties as assigned by supervisor.

Requirements include:

Department of Labor Apprenticeship Certificate. Journeyman card, Associates Degree in a related field or documented equivalent mechanical experience.

High School diploma or GED equivalent